HOW WE USE OUR LOGO

OUR GUIDELINES

In an increasingly competitive world, it's vital that the value of being an ICAEW Chartered Accountant is understood and appreciated by everyone you deal with.

You can use versions of the ICAEW logo to help you stand out from the crowd and promote the value you provide for businesses and clients, large and small.

From business cards to websites, using the logo(s) will help you to demonstrate your status and reputation as an ICAEW Chartered Accountant.

Your use of the logo reflects ICAEW's reputation, so it is important that you use it correctly. These guidelines explain how you can ensure that it remains consistent with our corporate branding.

Always use the master artwork to ensure accurate and professional reproduction, and also to ensure that the logo has not been altered in any way.

If you need help using the logo or understanding more about ICAEW's brand, please email us at brand@icaew.com

If you need to check your entitlement to use any of these logos, please contact us:

TWO COLOUR

There are two versions of our main logo: black with red dividers, and white with red dividers.

Take care when placing the logo, especially on photographic backgrounds. Select the most appropriate version to ensure that the entire logo, including the red dividers, stands out clearly.

SINGLE COLOUR

Limited use single colour black or white versions are available for monochrome printing only.

You can use the logo on your stationery, publications, website, social media channels, online advertising, directories, event stands, conference displays and office signage.

You cannot use it on the stationery, accounts, website or publications of a third party, such as a client.

CLEAR SPACE

Use the letters 'ICA' from the logo to determine the minimum clear space for the logo.

SIZE

The minimum size of our logo is 10mm height. It can be any size above the minimum, but it should not be displayed more prominently than your own firm's logo. The recommended size for our logo on an A4 document is 22mm in height.

POSITIONING

The logo should not be positioned in the top left-hand corner of stationery or web pages, or directly next to your own logo.

When used in a digital environment the logo should remain static at all times. It must not rotate, flash, turn, change dimensions, or move around the screen.

FORMATS

The logo is available in eps format for printing and png for digital. To use it in your email signature, re-size the png version.

Chartered accountants are talented, ethical and committed professionals. ICAEW represents more than 208,000 members and students around the world. 99 of the top 100 global brands employ ICAEW Chartered Accountants.*

Founded in 1880, ICAEW has a long history of serving the public interest and we continue to work with governments, regulators and business leaders globally. And, as a world-leading improvement regulator, we supervise and monitor around 11,500 firms, holding them, and all ICAEW members and students, to the highest standards of professional competency and conduct.

We promote inclusivity, diversity and fairness and we give talented professionals the skills and values they need to build resilient businesses, economies and societies, while ensuring our planet's resources are managed sustainably.

ICAEW is working towards becoming net zero, demonstrating our commitment to tackle climate change and supporting the UN Sustainable Development Goal 13.

ICAEW is a founding member of Chartered Accountants Worldwide (CAW), a global family that connects over 1.8m chartered accountants and students in more than 190 countries. Together, we support, develop and promote the role of chartered accountants as trusted business leaders, difference makers and advisers.

We believe that chartered accountancy can be a force for positive change. By sharing our insight, expertise and understanding we can help to create sustainable economies and a better future for all.
